

Last Chance to Book Early Bird Discounts for Excursions™ 2012 Offer Expires end June

Now is your last chance to take advantage of the reduced rate for stand bookings at Excursions™ 2012, the UK's premier one day group travel show. The special early bird offer for exhibitors wishing to booking space expires on Thursday, 30th June.

Demand for stands is already high following this year's record-breaking show when visitor numbers were up by 16 per cent. Amongst the many who have booked space well in advance are the Royal Borough of Windsor & Maidenhead, Historic Royal Palaces, Newmarket Racecourses, Cruise for Groups and the Page & Moy Travel Group.

The free entry exhibition, which will be held at Alexandra Palace, North London on Saturday, 28th January 2012, is organised by Tourism South East and Group Travel Organiser magazine, supported by London and Partners. Over 200 exhibitors are expected to take a stand including attractions, destinations, accommodation providers and tour operators.

Delighted with the show's ongoing success, joint organiser Elaine Pearce, Travel Trade Manager from Tourism South East said: "We have received numerous bookings and enquiries for stand space at Excursions™ confirming the industry's confidence in the show's ability to perform, even in today's more challenging climate. Next year's show promises to offer new and unmissable opportunities for group travel organisers planning their days out and short beaks."

Early bird booking forms are now available via the show's website www.excursions.org.uk; alternatively contact Emma Davis at Tourism South East on 023 8062 5472 or Adrian Gates at Group Travel Organiser magazine on 0845 166 8125. A video with highlights from the 2011 show can also be viewed on the website and online visitor registration will be available in due course.
